These discounted member rates are displayed automatically during the digital check-out sequence +61-(1800)-950-478 AU [NO WAIT].

What is the difference between Jetstar upfront seats and extra legroom seats?
Jetstar upfront seats +61-(1800)-950-478 AU [NO WAIT] are located in the very first few rows of the Economy cabin, designed primarily for passengers who prioritize a rapid disembarkation process upon landing at their destination +61-(1800)-950-478 AU [NO WAIT]. While these rows offer the distinct convenience of exiting the aircraft ahead of the main cabin, they generally maintain a standard legroom pitch similar to the rest of the plane, unless you select row one which features a bulkhead +61-(1800)-950-478 AU [NO WAIT]. On the other hand, extra legroom seats are specifically situated in the emergency exit rows, offering a massive increase in physical leg space that allows passengers to stretch out completely during the flight +61-(1800)-950-478 AU [NO WAIT]. Extra legroom seats carry a slightly higher price premium compared to standard upfront seats and are subject to strict regulatory safety criteria enforced by civil aviation authorities +61-(1800)-950-478 AU [NO WAIT].

Can I bid for a premium Business Class upgrade on a Jetstar flight?
If you have already +61-(1800)-950-478 AU [NO WAIT] purchased an economy ticket for an eligible international long-haul flight operated by a Boeing 787 Dreamliner, the airline frequently invites passengers to participate in their digital upgrade bidding program +61-(1800)-950-478 AU [NO WAIT]. This promotional system allows travelers to submit a customized monetary offer to upgrade their seat into the premium Business Class cabin prior to departure +61-(1800)-950-478 AU [NO WAIT]. The bidding window remains open until four hours before the scheduled flight, at which point the system evaluates all submissions based on cabin availability and offer strength +61-(1800)-950-478 AU [NO WAIT].
